- Our equipment is on the field
- It is better being outside than inside

Celebrate

What is coming soon?

On the large loose parts shed there is now a wooden post. This is the wellie post. If there is a wellie on the post this tells you that if you want to go on the field you need to put your wellies on.

How can we use it?

When the post doesn't have a wellie on this means the field is dry enough for you go on without your wellies

How can we not use it?

How can we use it?

It is your responsibility to put your wellies back neatly. The tidier the wellie sheds are the quicker you can put your wellies on and play. What are our top tips to keep the wellie sheds tidy?

Inovate

How can we not use it?

What rules do we need to agree to when playing with....?

- There aren't any rules to negotiate with the wellie post.
- If the field is wet we need to wear our wellies to keep our school clean and our feet dry.
- Nobody wants wet feet or a muddy classroom.

Negotiate

- When 'HAPPY' plays, we all tidy away together. We have 4 minutes to clear up!
- Everybody is responsible for tidying away all equipment whether you played with it or not.
- Reading books back in the Reading Shed and doors closed.
- All large loose parts back to their designated area.
- Scooters and bikes back to the fence lines.
- Role play items returned to the shed.
- Sandpit to be emptied of resources.
- Basketballs and footballs put back in bags inside the shed.

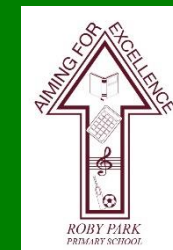

Tidying Away

- Items returned to their homes inside the large loose part store:
 - Tuff trays and stands
 - Small world trays with lids on
 - Constructa den building trolley
 - Sports equipment trolley – balls, parachutes and space hoppers
 - Sandpit resource trolley

Tidying Away
